Joanne Morin and Chris Skoglund of the NH Department of Environmental Services, who coordinated and supervised the activities associated with the Task Force process on behalf of NHDES, including overseeing the writing and production of this Climate Action Plan.

Dr. Cameron Wake and Dr. Ross Gittell of Carbon Solutions New England and their team, including Matt Frades and Matt Magnusson, who provided extraordinary dedication, energy and expertise in their analysis of CO₂ reductions, costs of implementation and economic benefits associated with the potential actions considered by the Task Force.

The New Hampshire Charitable Foundation, which provided the financial support for the work of Carbon Solutions New England as well as support for many of the meetings and conference calls, and also provided leadership in implementation planning

Special thanks go to the following NHDES employees who served, in addition to their normal job assignments, as working group facilitators and coordinators, providing significant contributions to organizing and managing over 125 volunteers, evaluating potential actions in collaboration with the working groups, assisting with public meetings, providing technical resources during Task Force deliberations, and preparing various aspects of the final report:

Their dedication produced over 100 potential action reports which the Task Force used to develop its recommendations. All of their work is included in the report appendices and will continue to serve as a valuable resource for implementing the Task Force recommendations as well as for considering new actions in the future. For a complete listing of these individuals by working group, see Appendix 2.

Finally, the Task Force would like to thank all the members of the public, including the University of New Hampshire students of Natural Resources 444H, who participated in this process by attending Task Force meetings, public listening sessions, and providing their comments.
